I, _____ (Tenant's full name), the tenant in the above-captioned application, understand that I may answer the landlord's claim for release of rents by stating which facts in the landlord's application are true and which facts are not true.

1. Answer to landlord's request for full release of rent deposits: (check all that apply)

- I gave the landlord the required notice. I was not required to give the landlord a notice because I was not given written notice of the address of the owner or his agent as required by law.
- I was current in the rent on the date of the initial rent deposit.
- There existed at the rental premises, on the date of the initial rent deposit, the required conditions for rent withholding.
- Not all of the conditions concerning which I have rent deposited have been remedied.

Additional facts about the landlord's claim for full release are: _____

2. Answer to the landlord's request for partial release of rent deposits: (check all that apply)

The funds are not necessary to meet the customary and usual costs of operating the rental premises.

The funds are required to remedy the conditions concerning which I have rent deposited.

Additional facts about the landlord's claim for full release are: _____

WHEREFORE, the tenant prays for judgment against the landlord in the amount of $ _____ plus costs incurred herein.

Respectfully submitted,
